Brief Biography

Hailed as, “A competent and classy 21st Century Bluesman” by Fatea Magazine and “brim-full of positive vibes, humour and innovation” by RnR Magazine, Ged Wilson now signed to Bad Monkey Records and supported by Help Musicians is wowing audiences with his blend of acoustic blues roots fusion.

Now based in Cheltenham, Ged ( that’s Jed with a G!) grew up in Manchester, a city with a great musical heritage which has influenced his very own distinctive song writing and performance style.

On stage Ged creates guitar grooves, harmonica wails and from the heart vocals, spiced with a dash of laconic humour to give a full-on upbeat show.

He has toured the nation, jammed the blues clubs, hit the festivals and had two sell-out tours of France. With four solo albums and a fifth one on the way, much radio airplay, favourable reviews and so much more to come; Ged is now making his mark.
