

Ged Wilson

Brief Biography

Hailed as, “A competent and classy 21st Century Bluesman” by Fatea Magazine and “brim-full of positive vibes, humour and innovation” by RnR Magazine, Ged Wilson is wowing audiences with his blend of acoustic blues roots jazz fusion.

Now based in Cheltenham, Ged grew up in Manchester, a city with a great musical heritage which has influenced him to develop his very own distinctive song writing and performance style.

Ged creates guitar vibes, harp wails and from the heart vocals, all spiced up with a dash of laconic humour to give a full-on upbeat show.

He has toured the nation, jammed the blues clubs, hit the festivals and had two sell-out tours of France. With four solo albums, much radio airplay and favourable reviews Ged is now making his mark.
